

Loans Policy and Procedures

Appeals Process

Should an applicant's proposal for financial assistance be declined by the Business Analyst, the applicant can submit a written appeal to the General Manager.

Should an applicant's proposal for financial assistance be declined by the General Manager, the applicant can submit an appeal to the Board of Directors.

Should an applicant's proposal for financial assistance be declined by the Loans Committee, the applicant shall have the option of appealing the decision to the Board only after addressing the specific concerns as noted in the Letter of Decline.